2015 ANNUAL REPORT

PISGAH
LEGAL SERVICES

more justice less poverty

more access to justice...

LESS SUFFERING FOR PEOPLE LIVING IN POVERTY.

We are Pisgah Legal Services, a nonprofit law firm that provides free civil legal aid to thousands of people in the mountains of WNC to:

- STOP DOMESTIC VIOLENCE
- ASSIST CHILDREN IN CRISIS
- PREVENT HOMELESSNESS
- ACCESS HEALTH CARE
- PROTECT SENIORS
- ADDRESS FRAUD/PROTECT CONSUMERS
- SECURE ESSENTIAL BENEFITS
- ASSIST IMMIGRANTS

Together, we can fight poverty and pursue justice for those who have nowhere else to turn. Please join us!

More justice...less poverty. Pisgah Legal Services (PLS) exists to increase access to justice for low-income people, and by doing so addresses devastating problems of poverty.

Studies show that, in the U.S., 80% of low-income people face a crushing civil legal problem. Yet, in North Carolina, there is only one legal aid attorney for every 19,160 people.

There is a desperate need for access to free civil legal aid in our mountains. Our neighbors rely on Pisgah Legal's staff and volunteer attorneys to stop domestic violence, to avoid homelessness, and to secure health care, subsistence income, and food. Thanks to your support we helped more than 15,000 people in crisis in 2015.

This year, new grants from the Governor's Crime Commission and the Women for Women Giving Circle expanded our domestic violence prevention work. We helped more domestic violence victims than ever in 2015 – 31% more than in 2014.

While the domestic violence team expanded, PLS was forced to reduce its housing and consumer protection work, due to funding cuts from the State and other sources.

This has reduced our capacity to help families stabilize their housing and is especially distressing at a time when these needs are more urgent than ever.

With a vacancy rate of less than 1% in rental housing in much of WNC, low-income renters have very few options. They are more likely to face homelessness when they lose their housing.

PLS continues to increase access to legal aid in rural and isolated communities. We opened a new office on Main Street in Rutherfordton, and are now sharing office space with the Mediation Center in Brevard.

We have 17 full-time attorneys and 300+ volunteer attorneys devoted to meeting the needs of thousands of individuals and families who live in poverty in our mountains. With your generosity, compassion and commitment to fairness, we can bring justice to the people of Western North Carolina.

Thank you for your support!

more protection...

less abuse and violence.

"Amelia" (above, right) was terrified of her abuser. He controlled her, beat her and convinced her that if she left him, he would take their son.

Despite having the support of friends, Amelia says, "I was so scared that I was ready to give up before I got a lawyer from Pisgah Legal Services."

With Pisgah Legal's help, Amelia was awarded custody, a protection order and possession of the family vehicle. PLS Staffer Thalia Hoy (shown above, left, with Amelia) helped guide her through the legal system.

Last year, PLS assisted more than 5,000 survivors of domestic violence and their children with free legal aid. This included obtaining protective orders that can reduce the rate and severity of violence.

Our staff and volunteer lawyers also provided critical help with related legal issues that hinder victims from leaving abusive relationships, such as child custody and housing.

In 2015, Pisgah Legal added two attorney positions dedicated to stopping domestic violence thanks to new funding from the Women for Women Giving Circle (above, far right) and the Governor's Crime Commission.

PLS continues to work with local government and nonprofit agencies on the eNOugh Campaign, a coordinated effort to reduce domestic violence in Buncombe County. These efforts include planning for a Family Justice Center to open in Asheville in 2016.

People living in Alpine Woods Resort were in crisis and without the means to move elsewhere. The owner of this 80-unit mobile home park in Henderson County allowed it to fall into extreme disrepair.

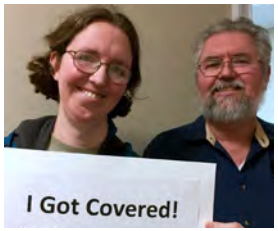
Living conditions were appalling. Raw sewage ran through the streets. Most people had no running water. Trailers were infested with bugs and mold. Residents battled the cold in vain because of gaping holes in their floors and broken windows.

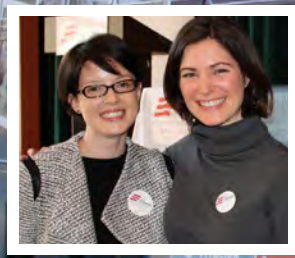
Pisgah Legal Staff Attorney Tom Gallagher and retired volunteer attorney Ray Reiser (shown left with park tenant, Annie) helped residents take legal action against the park owner, forcing him to make necessary repairs. Pisgah Legal's work averted condemnation of the park, which would have resulted in dozens of families becoming homeless. The park was sold to a new owner who is making it a safer place to live.

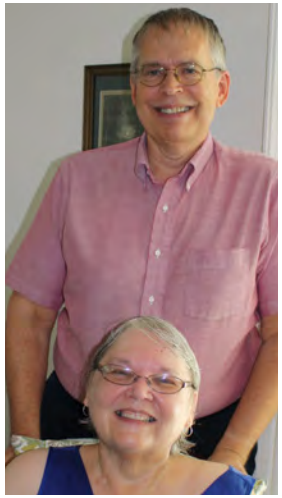
In 2015, Pisgah Legal Services helped 4,126 people secure housing and avoid homelessness.

more health care...

less catastrophic need.







Almost 90 percent of Americans now have health insurance thanks to the Affordable Care Act. Pisgah Legal staff and volunteers continue to help local people across WNC – more than 1,700 people this year alone – understand their options and sign up for plans. Nine out of 10 North Carolinians participating in the Exchange are receiving money-saving subsidies.

David retired early to help care for his wife Belinda (both above, middle) who is battling reoccurring cancer.

"Before the ACA we were paying $1,500 a month for insurance. Now we're paying $400 and getting much better care," David says.

PLS continues to serve as a local leader in the effort, working with other ACA partners in the WNC region and throughout North Carolina. In 2015 Pisgah Legal Managing Attorney Jackie Kiger and ACA Program Manager Shannon Cornelius presented these best practices at a national conference in Washington, D.C.

In 2015 these volunteers gave thousands of hours to make our ACA Navigator Program a tremendous success, helping local people get the health care they need. Thank you to all of you!

Angel's American Dream

Angel fled Guatemala at the tender of age of 15 in search of a better life. His mother died when he was five years old. Too poor to attend school, Angel worked in hard labor camps, earning just a few dollars per day, money his abusive father would use to buy alcohol. Many nights, Angel went to bed hungry. He had no hope that his life would improve.

Angel escaped the abuse and made the dangerous journey to the U.S. with a human smuggler, or "coyote." After crossing the border, Angel was discovered and placed in a detention center for minors.

Eventually Angel was allowed to join family in WNC where Pisgah Legal staffer Yolanda Bopp (L) and Attorney Lynne Davis (R) helped him obtain his green card to stay in the country legally. Angel has taught himself English, and is an outstanding student at Asheville High School.
"I want to be like Lynne Davis when I grow up," Angel says.

THE POWER OF PRO BONO

When Tami and her son Blake needed help, MAVL attorney Perrin de Jong (far left, facing page) took their case free of charge, or pro bono.

"Without Pisgah Legal, we would've had to sell our car, and we depend on it to take Blake to Duke for treatment," says Tami.

"We didn't want to take too much of Perrin's time, but he told us not to worry. We never felt like a charity case."

Meet Staff Attorney Martin Jarrard

Martin Jarrard is a Pisgah Legal Services staff attorney who works in the Rutherfordton office.

Martin has been at Pisgah Legal since 2010. He specializes in domestic violence and housing issues.

"The reason I went to law school was so that I could make a difference in people's lives, and I've been able to do that in a lot of cases I've had at Pisgah Legal Services," Martin says. "Helping people, that's the best part of working here."

"Our clients have many obstacles in their way of having safe and stable lives," he continues. "I rarely have any client that has only one issue that needs legal attention."

Martin holds two Bachelor's degrees: Anthropology from UNC-Chapel Hill, and Psychology from UNC-Wilmington. He graduated from law school at the University of Richmond. Martin also has a Master's degree in Social Work from Virginia Commonwealth University.

A legacy gift can meet your personal, family and financial needs, and help assure that Pisgah Legal Services will continue to help people in need for generations to come. Legacy gifts include: a cash gift to the endowment, a bequest in your will, designation of PLS as beneficiary of retirement accounts or life insurance, real estate gifts, or a charitable trust or annuity. A special group of generous people have made planned and cash gifts to the Pisgah Legal Services Endowment. Join them, and create your legacy.
